

"Some days it just flows and I feel like I'm born to do this, other days it feels like I'm trudging through hell. Every day I make the choice to show up and see what I've got, and to try and be better"

~ Des Linden

We believe this is true of our Houston Marathon Legacy Runners! You show up and strive for greatness. We are happy to announce our newest inductees, 2022 stats and race recap!

2023 LEGACY REGISTRATION REMINDERS

You are our legacy! And that means your dedication and loyalty have earned you a few extra perks. Here are a few things to note:

- Legacy registration is currently open! As a Legacy runner, you will have until Nov. 1, 2022*, to register for the Chevron Houston Marathon or the Aramco Houston Half Marathon and keep your Legacy status.

**Please be advised that after Nov. 1, 2022, you will no longer receive your guaranteed discounted registration. After Nov. 1, if general registration is still open, you may register for 2022 at the regular participant rate, or through the Chevron Houston Marathon Run for a Reason charity program, provided entries are still available.*

WHAT IS YOUR LEGACY?

We know every runner has a story. And we're confident our Legacy Runners have some of the best! We're looking to share your story with our dedicated runners for inspiration and motivation. So share with us why you choose to run each year and keep your Legacy streak alive by emailing dhernandez@houstonmarathon.com - you may even be featured in our ABC13 broadcast!.

2022 RACE RECAP

HOUSTON (January 14 - 16, 2022) - Celebrating its 50th anniversary in spectacular and historic fashion, the Chevron Houston Marathon saw Keira D'Amato set an American record for the distance when she broke the tape in 2:19:12. Not to be outdone, the Aramco Houston Half Marathon made some history of its own, with women's winner Vicoty Chepngeno winning in a course-record time of 1:05:03 – the fastest women's half marathon ever run on U.S. soil – and Sara Hall setting an American record of 1:07:15.
